Kevin Bacon's Liquid Hoof Dressing is a protective and nourishing formulation for horses hooves developed only with natural plant products such as laurel oil. It is rapidly absorbed, easy to use and maintains the same texture for all seasons. Its brush integrated to the stopper allows a practical and clean application.

The hoof is a noble natural material that requires particular care in order to last long and to keep all its qualities.
Kevin Bacon's Liquid Hoof Dressing is a very rich formulation that feeds and softens the whole hoof thoroughly without clogging its pores, thereby enabling it to breathe naturally!
Kevin Bacon's Liquid Hoof Dressing is certified 100% natural and safe. It is traditionally handcrafted.

Recommendations for use :
Apply the product with the brush directly to the outside of the foot, sole, and frog.
Care for healthy hooves: 2 applications a week.
Before a competition: 1 application. (for beauty and aesthetics)
Under dry weather conditions: 4 to 5 applications a week.
When hooves are too dry: Wash the foot, then dry it and apply the product. Repeat this operation daily for one week.

Kevin Bacons Hoof Dressing is also suitable for horses kept on wood shavings.
